Circumstance of the Maltreatment

1. Present Danger Threats (Check all that apply)

An immediate, significant, and clearly observable family condition that is occurring or in process of occurring at the point of contact with the family and will likely result in severe harm to the child.

A. Maltreatment

- Child is being maltreated at the time of the report or initial contact. Severe to extreme maltreatment of child is suspected, observed or confirmed. Child has multiple or different kind of injuries. Child has unexplained injuries. The maltreatment demonstrates bizarre cruelty (e.g., torture or extreme emotional abuse). The maltreatment of several victims is suspected, observed or confirmed. The maltreatment appears premeditated. Dangerous (life threatening) living arrangements are present.

B. Child

- Parent's viewpoint of the child is bizarre (e.g., skewed and distorted). Child is unsupervised and unable to care for self. Child needs medical attention, Child is profoundly fearful of the home situation or people within the home.

C. Parent

- Parent is intoxicated (alcohol or other drugs) now or is consistently under the influence. Parent is out of control (mental illness or other significant lack of control). Parent is demonstrating bizarre behaviors (e.g., incoherent or inappropriate). Parent is unable or unwilling to perform basic care. Parent is acting dangerous now or is described as dangerous. Parent's whereabouts are unknown. One or both parents overtly reject intervention.

D. Family

- The family may flee. The family hide the child. Child is subject to present/active domestic violence.

Describe present danger threats:

2. Impending Danger Threats (Check all that apply)

A foreseeable state of danger in which a family behavior, attitude, motive, emotion or situation that can be anticipated to have severe effects on a child at any times in the near future and requires safety intervention.

- No adult in the home will perform parental duties and responsibilities. One or both parents/caregivers are violent. One or both parents'/caregivers' behavior is dangerously impulsive or they will not/cannot control their behavior. One or both parents/caregivers have extremely negative perceptions of the child.
