RULE 16 - BAIL-RELEASE PENDING APPEAL.

Every person who has been convicted of a tribal offense and who had filed an appeal or a petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of Rule 15, above, unless the judge has substantial reason to believe that no conditions of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the accused or that release of the accused is likely to pose a danger to the community, to the accused or to any person. If the judge, by hearing finds such to be the case, he may order detention of the accused.

RULE 17 - WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA.

- (c) If the Court finds that a complaint was not filed in good faith but with a frivolous or malicious intent, it may order the complainant to reimburse the Tribe for expenditures incurred under this section, and such order shall constitute a judgment upon which execution may levy.

In all trials, the testimony of witnesses shall be given under oath in open court subject to the right of cross-examination. The Federal rules of evidence are applicable in court.

RULE 24 - JURY TRIAL.

RULE 29 - HABEAS CORPUS PROCEDURE.

- (a) Appropriate relief by habeas corpus proceedings shall be granted whenever it appears to the court that any person is unjustly imprisoned or otherwise restrained of his liberty. Upon the filing of the complaint the court shall, unless it appears from such complaint or the showing of the plaintiff that he is not entitled to any relief, issue a writ directed to the defendant commanding him to bring the person alleged to be restrained before the court at a time and place therein specified, at which time the court shall proceed in a summary manner to hear the matter and render judgment accordingly. The answer must state plainly and unequivocally whether he then has, or at any time has had the person designated under his control and restraint, and if so, the cause thereof. If such person has been transferred, the defendant must state that fact, and to whom, and when, the transfer was made, and the reason or authority therefor. The writ shall not be disobeyed for any defect of form or misdescription of the person restrained or defendant, if enough is stated to show the meaning and intent thereof.

The person restrained may waive his right to be present at the hearing, in which case the writ shall be modified accordingly. Pending a determination of the matter the court may place such person in the custody of such individual or individuals as may be deemed proper.

- (b) Habeas Corpus: Decision: In each case, the court upon determining the case, shall enter specific findings of fact and conclusion of law and judgment, in writing, and the same shall be made part of the record in the case. If the court finds in favor of the complainant, it shall enter an appropriate order with respect to judgment or sentence in the former proceedings and such further orders with respect to rearraignment, retrial, custody, bail, or discharge as the court may deem just and proper in the case.
- (c) Habeas Corpus Availability. Except in cases of extraordinary injustice, habeas corpus relief shall not be available to a person incarcerated as a result of a criminal conviction where the alleged grounds for relief have been or could have been by an appeal following the conviction.

Upon arriving at the scene, I knocked on the door of the residence and was admitted by Mrs. _____. She directed me to a back bedroom where I found the defendant in a crouched position near the bed. I asked the defendant to accompany me to the doorway of the residence. The defendant refused to do as directed so I placed my hand on his arm to direct him to the doorway of the residence. The defendant at this time pushed me to the floor and ran towards the doorway of the residence. I caught the defendant at the doorway of the residence and placed the defendant under arrest for resisting arrest. In attempting to put handcuffs on him, he repeatedly attempted to pull his arms away requiring me to forcefully restrain him. While in the squad car enroute to the Menominee Tribal Police Department, the defendant threatened me and stated that he would take care of me when I was off duty. This complainant states that he believes this information to be a true and accurate account of the incident as it happened on the night in question.
